

ARMA INTERNATIONAL TERRA NOVA CHAPTER

INFORMATION SHEET SERIES #4

Preservation and Restoration of Magnetic Mediums

RESOURCES:

- Mitch Betts. Businesses Worry About Long-Term Data Losses; Will We Access Our Saved Data in 20 Years? Computer World, Sept. 20, 1999. (Info Trac Web. 29 January, 2001.)
- Bill Holland. If I Knew You Were Coming I'd Have Baked a Tape. (Ampex's dehydration "baking" method for restabilizing the stick tapes). Billboard, Jun. 5, 1999 vol. 111(23). (Info Trac Web. 29 January, 2001.)
- Virginia A. Jones. How Long Will it Last? OfficeSystems99, Dec. 1999 (16)(12). (Info Trac Web. 30 January, 2001.)

WEB RESOURCES:

- "Baking" Magnetic Tape to Overcome the "Sticky Shed" Syndrome
www.audio-restoration.com/baking.htm
- Specs Bros. Audio & Video Tape Restoration
www.specsbros.com/restore.html
- Graham Newton. Audio Restoration: The Preservation of Recorded Sound Materials
www.audio-restoration.com/gilles2.htm
- Gilles St. Laurent. National Library of Canada. Music Division. The Preservation of Recorded Sound Materials
www.audio-restoration.com/gilles.htm/#degrade
- Lars Gaustad. The Vinegar Syndrome - A Brief Encounter
www.nb.no/fiat/bogensee/2-173gaustad.html

